Public Forum

Jane Jones raised an issue that she wanted the Parish Council to consider. As a resident she thinks that a defibrillator would be a life saving device that could be put in the old telephone box. She asked the Parish Council to consider funding it.

The Parish Council wished to thank the Village Hall Committee for the lovely refurbishment of the toilets.

Pranksters in the village have been moving signs, removing pumpkins for sale and a clown impersonator was seen around the village hall.

5. No planning applications.

A meeting is to be organised by planning advisors who wish to talk to the Parish Council about a proposed planning application on Bells Lane. Notice will be given for the public meeting to gain opinion on whether houses are needed.
