BELL RINGERS GOTCH

Thank you to all the people who came to see, and take photo's of this unique piece of Hinderclay's history. Thanks also to the cake bakers and tea makers and all who donated their time. We had the Gorch on display in the Church for our Palm Sunday service the next day and our current bell ringers rang for us and stayed for a blessing for all our bell ringers, past and present.

St Mary's Church

Services

Sunday 14th April - Family Service - 9.30am - Mr. Ken Smith

Sunday 28th April - Holy Communion - Rev. Cathy Bladen

WEDDING - St Mary's will see the wedding of Molly Metcalf to Thomas Woods on Saturday 6th April at 2.30pm—we wish the happy couple health, wealth and happiness for their future.

ERROL JOHN GARNHAM - 'Willy' as we all knew him. It is with sadness that we record the death and burial of this truly exceptional man. Willy died on 28th February and was buried in Rickinghall Churchyard (as was his wish) on 22nd March. It is estimated that over 200 people attended to remember and give thanks for this man's marvellous life. Every one of us with a tale to tell and a humorous anecdote to recall. Our thoughts and prayers are with his wife Brenda, his son Glenn and all his family.

FREDERICK GARNHAM - Again with sadness we report the death of Freddie Garnham. He died in hospital on 8th February after a long illness. His funeral will take place in Hinderclay Church on Wednesday 10th April at 2.30pm, with the burial following in Rickinghall churchyard. Our thoughts and prayers are with his brother Michael, sister Angela and all his family.

The Brownies continue to enjoy meeting at Hinderclay Village Hall. We have been learning about the world around us and practising new skills. This term our focus has been wellbeing, so we have spent time exploring tools to help us relax, deal with worries and look after ourselves. We have enjoyed days out together and are looking forward to a sleepover next term, We hope to get out and about as the weather improves and get involved with the local community.

As some of our older girls move on, we have spaces available for new members.
